Subject: Flagstaff Annual Armed Forces Day Parade

This Saturday, May 16, is the annual Flagstaff Armed Forces Day Parade. Perch Base has attended this parade for several years and we have consistently had one of the better receptions of any of our yearly events. But the parade starts early and it's a good long drive to Flagstaff. Although actual start time is 11 a.m., staging begins at 7:30 a.m. and if you wait too late you just simply will not be able to get in. If you don't remember the way to staging, check out the map Dan Marks (Webmaster) put on the web page at:

http://www.perch-base.org/Hot_Items.htm for assistance.

By the way, the weatherman is calling for decidedly un-May weather; the high in the 40's and very strong chance of rain/snow. Please be very, very careful.
