SUBJECT: George Long E-Mails

Some of you may have recently received an e-mail from our Base shipmate, George Long, requesting money for some reason – most about a “sister’s illness. These e-mails may come from various e-mail addresses with the only common points being that they all are purported to be from George and all request money or a loan.

These messages are all phony and scams! We contacted George’s family and were assured George’s e-mail had been hacked and, probably, his address book compromised.

No action is required by our members. Just ignore the message and by all means DO NOT REPLY TO THE E-MAIL. This may cause your system to also be hacked.

Questions? Contact me or the Base Commander.
