Subject: Annual Base Picnic Tomorrow

The annual Base picnic is tomorrow at Paloma Park, Peoria (check website for details). This is one event on our calendar where the families are welcomed and can fully participate. Here are some tidbits to assist with planning for tomorrow's event:

1. Per the ADOT website, weekend freeway closures should not inhibit traveling to the picnic. Nonetheless, it be wise to double check the ADOT website later today for any changes.
2. The weather tomorrow will be ~~H~~OT (> 100°F); therefore, come prepared. The picnic site has roofed ramadas but dressing comfortably is recommended. Sunscreen is a must.
3. The Base is providing water and sodas, but if you need additional beverages to mitigate the heat, please do so. Please refer to the restrictions on alcoholic beverages outlined on the website.
4. There are picnic benches in the ramadas, but if you have a comfortable folding chair, it may be wise to bring it.
5. There will be a Holland Club Induction Ceremony also.

Finally, don't forget that today is National Submarine Day!!! If you are out and about, make sure you are wearing a SubVet ball cap and/or your dolphins.
