Shipmates,

After speaking with the National Commander this morning, we have decided to delay the launch date by 72 hours with the goal of relaunching 12 am EST, 11 pm CST, 10 pm MST, and 9 pm PST on April 3, 2026.

While we have successfully transitioned the database (24 hours of work in two days - thank you Bill Stuple), we anticipate the final restoration of the database and the subsequent regression testing to take north of 15 hours, and all of this occurs after work is finished. Thank you for your patience.

Respectfully,

Tim Carlisle,

Chief Technology Officer
